

Makerere-Cambridge Video linked Seminar Series
2017-18 2.00-4.00 p.m EAT

Date	Speaker	Title
Thursday 9 th March	Dr Pete Bull	The role of Plasmodium falciparum -infected erythrocyte surface antigens as targets of naturally acquired immunity to malaria
Thursday 20 th April	Professor Ashley Moffett	The immune system in pregnancy
Thursday 27 th April	Professor Andrew Lever	Molecular biology of HIV
Thursday 4 th May	Professor Stephen Bentley	Pneumococcal evasion of vaccines and antibiotics
Thursday 18 th May	Dr Ankur Mutreja	Understanding and tackling cholera using genomics and vaccines
Thursday 25 th May *(2.30 start)	Dr Caroline Trotter	Meningococcal conjugate vaccines: immunological responses, correlates of protection and the impact of mass immunisation programmes
Thursday 1 st June	Professor Geoffrey Smith	The eradication of smallpox and new findings for an old vaccine
Thursday 8 th June	Professor John Trowsdale	Tolerance, hypersensitivity and autoimmunity. The key role of the MHC.